The following correspondence explains itself:
NEW YORK, Feb. 11, 1870. Mr. GEO. L. FOX:

NEW YORK, Feb. II, 1870.

Mr. GEO. L. FOX:

DEAR SIR: During your pantomimic preparations at the Olympic, in this city, If consistent with your arrangements, we should receive great pleasure in witnessing your famed impersonation of Shakspeare's Hamiet.

Heyond any other of your numerous histrionic achievements, this has attached most considerably to your celebrity with the American public from the high position accorded you by eminent native critics.

The market originality and excellence evidenced by you in the characters in which you have already appeared inspire us with an ardent desire to witness your Hamiet.

With esteem, yours truly, (Signet by a Legion of) (Fromtrent citize.s, by far) (100 numerous to publish.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 12, 1870.

GENTLEMEN: OENTLEMEN:

Hamlet—The body is with the King, but the King is not with the body. The King is a thing.

Guidenstern—A thing my lors?

Hamlet—Of nothing: bring me to him. HIDE FOX and all aster.

Not being at all inclined to be nidden, not eithetanding my friend Booth's justly famed impersonation and masterly "getting up" of Shakspeare's Hamlet have reniered it a somewhat difficult task, I cannot but yield to your earnest desire to witness my attempt in the part of H. D. (Hamlet, Dana.)

With respect, yours truly,

GEORGE L. FOX.
